

Beauty Introductory Diploma level 1

Course Overview

This course is an introductory programme that gives you knowledge and skills for the beauty therapy sector. You will develop a range of basic practical skills working on the hands and face. Within the course, you will gain an understanding of the importance of following safe working practices. You will also have the opportunity to develop your professional spoken English skills as you will work with a range of peers and potential clients during your course study. You will complete a series of written assignments with the support of your lecturing team giving you a knowledge of the theory associated with the course and this will also help to improve your written English skills.
If you are aged 16-18 you will be enrolled on a study programme which could include re-taking GCSEs or undertaking functional skills in English and maths. You will also be required to complete a work experience placement and an employability programme. This programme will help to develop your written and oral communication skills, self-confidence and computer skills.

What you will learn

The units that you will study on your programme are:
- Facial skin care to include cleanse, tone and moisturise and skin diagnosis.
- Hand care and manicure to cover filing painting, cuticle work and hand and arm massage
- Day and evening make-up skills will be learnt and developed together with photographic make-up
- Face painting skills will help to develop your artistic and creative capabilities and you will learn how to create several characters.
- Nail art will include dotting and striping, foils and transfers
- Pedicure and foot care treatments will be covered.
You will spend time every week working on reception to develop your communication and customer service skills. Relevant salon health and safety requirements will be assessed.
