

Skills for Working in Transport and Logistics Industries Extended Award level 1

Course Overview

The transport and logistics sector is broad and is what keeps everything moving. From warehouses and distribution, to train drivers and planners. There are lots of roles and opportunities in this sector and this course explores some of the key areas for anyone who has an interest in starting a career in this exciting industry.

What you will learn

The course offers you a great deal of flexibility, so you can shape what you learn at your own pace. The course is made up of several units, each worth a number of credits. To achieve the extended award, you would need to gain a total of 9 credits. There is one mandatory unit, worth 3 credits, and then you choose from the optional units to gain the additional 6 credits. Mandatory Unit (3 Credits) - Operating within a supply chain, worth 3 credits Optional units (you must achieve 6 credits from the following units below to gain the qualification) - Environmental impact of transport and logistic operations, worth 2 credits - Introduction to distribution operations, worth 2 credits - Introduction to importing and exporting, worth 2 credits - Introduction to transport and logistics legislation, worth 2 credits

Entry Requirements

There are no formal entry requirements, however, a reasonable level of literacy is required.

How you will be assessed

This qualification is assessed by short answer questions and multiple-choice exams.

Course Progression

On completion of this award, your tutor will be able to provide advice and guidance on other online or distance learning courses, or classroom-based programmes. For more detailed advice and guidance about future steps, you can make an appointment with one of our qualified career advisers who can support you in finding the most suitable career path for you and making the most of your skills and qualifications.

What Happens Next

Apply online via the College website. You will then be invited to a pre-course information session. For applications via JCP, please let your Work Coach know. Subject to individual eligibility and type of benefit, the vast majority of courses are FREE to people in receipt of an employment-related benefit JSA, Universal Credit or ESA (Employment and Support Allowance).

Course Details

Course Code	P00660
Start Date	Various
Study Hours	Part Time
Duration	1 week
Campus	City Skills Centre
Level	1

Apply Here